

AT KENTUCKY'S
CAPITAL.GENERAL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
—CLOSING OF THE GEORGETOWN CHAUTAUQUA—M. E. CHURCH CONVENTION.

The General Baptist Association has brought to this city the largest number of intelligent ministers and visitors that has ever assembled here. A general welcome is extended to the visitors in every nook and corner, from the hearts of every loyal citizen. The session will begin at Rev. W. T. Silvey's church, opposite the Governor's mansion. The M. E. Church held their session at New Zion Kentucky. It was one of the largest bodies of Missionary Women that has ever assembled in a meeting of this nature in the State. They had a most profitable session and much good. It is to be hoped, will result therefrom.

The Negro Chautauqua at Georgetown was a grand success. The great educational feast continued for eight days. Some of the best speakers of our race took part in the exercises to the great edification of all who had the pleasure of hearing them.

Miss Clara Coleman and Mrs. Mollie Warren left for Georgetown to visit Mrs. Fannie B. Rice.

Mrs. Frances Williams gave a party in honor of her cousins, the Misses Handy of Chicago, at her residence on Mero street.

Mrs. Alice Woolfolk and Mrs. Mary Garrett, of Louisville, are the guests of Mrs. Blackburn on Normal Heights.

Miss Edmonia Campbell, of Indianapolis, is the guest of her parents on Hill.

The District Convention at the First Baptist Church by the Reapers' Club, of which Miss Mary P. Madison is president. All of the performers played their parts well.

Miss Laura Parker, of Louisville, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Anna Gatewood.

Mrs. Annie T. O'Neill has arrived from a few weeks visit in Dayton, O.

Miss Charity Boyd, has arrived after taking a tour through the East, and taking a summer course in music at the Chicago University. Miss Boyd is Directress in Music at the Clinton Street High School.

Mr. A. W. Titus, of Berea, was in the city this week.

Miss Zibbie Johnson left for Louisville, after a few week's visit with her mother, Mrs. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Mattie L. Anderson left for Bardonia to attend the Teacher's Institute which Prof. H. C. Russell is conducting.

Mrs. Samuel Williams and son, S. T. Williams, are spending a few weeks in Cincinnati.

Miss Florence Anderson has returned from Atlantic City.

Mr. A. L. Bridwell, a graduate of the K. N. I. I., has been elected as teacher at the Reform School at Lexington.

Mrs. Sydney Bryant, who left the city a few months ago, very ill, has returned from Jeffersonville, Ind., wonderfully improved.

Mrs. Alex. Saunders, of New York City, is the guest of Miss L. Saunders.

Mr. R. L. Darnaby, of Lexington, passed through the city en route to Tuskegee, and was the guest of Mrs. Blackburn on Normal Heights.

Mrs. Susie Davis is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Edwards.

Prof. G. P. Russell, Principal of the Russell High School at Lexington, is conducting the Teachers' Institute at Harrodsburg this week.

Mrs. Ellen Davenport, of East St. Louis, Mo., the niece of Mr. Grayson, of Lawrenceburg, met with a painful accident, getting her foot badly scalded, which is giving her a considerable amount of trouble.

Rev. G. L. Brown, who has been pastor of the Lawrenceburg Church for a number of years, died very suddenly at his home in Harrodsburg.

The Lexington District M. E. Conference will convene at Lexington, Aug. 21st to 25th. A large number of delegates is expected.

The Union Benevolent Lodge will hold its annual session at Russell Cave. The session will begin the last Tuesday in this month and continue four days.

Prof. W. Buchanan, of Normal, Ala. A. & H. College, has accepted the presidency of the K. N. I. I. We wish the young man much success.

FLEMINGSBURG.

On Friday last Mr. Thompson Brown was struck on the head by a rock by some unknown person. His skull was cracked, exposing the brain and the wound may prove fatal.

Mr. Brown was totally unconscious till Saturday and knows nothing of his assailant. A man was arrested on suspicion and is at this writing awaiting trial, which is set for Tuesday. The wounded man is at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Wyatt, a well-known citizen of Flemingsburg.

Miss Ellen Wyatt, of Cincinnati, who is visiting her mother at this place, leaves for home on Wednesday.

A number of Flemingsburg people were in Maysville last Sunday.

Rev. G. L. A. Wilson left for Winchester Monday to hold service that night.

The conference of the M. E. Church will begin on Wednesday, the 14th, at Winchester.

Flemingsburg was quite largely represented at Mayslick at the closing of the eight days meeting at the Christian Church.

Rev. J. W. White will start an eight days meeting at Pleasantville on Sunday next. Rev. G. L. A. Wilson will be one of the preachers.

Mrs. Mary L. Griffith's two girls have typhoid fever.

Crops are very good throughout Mason county. Some tobacco was cut last week. This will be an early season.

Rev. J. D. Brown's eight days meeting will start the 25th of August. Many good preachers are expected to be with him at Mayslick.

Mr. Tom Bell has gone to Ripley, O., to live.

PRICE TOWN

(By Elizabeth Merchant.)

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Berryman, with two daughters, Miss Mary and Martha, and son Archie spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Cora Collins.

A good many people from Pricetown spent Sunday in Uttinger town. They report a pleasant day. Miss Kattie Cowan, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. John Turner on the Todd's Road.

Miss Mary Lee, of Leestown, Ky., has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Sallie White.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Smith, of Pricetown, spent Saturday until Monday in Winchester, visiting their sister.

Miss Ione Smith, of Lexington, who has been visiting here, went home Monday.

Miss Mary Bell Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, is visiting her aunt in Winchester, Miss Julia May Smith.

Attendance at Pricetown Sunday School 32. Collection $1.02.

Mrs. Nannie Hall, of Muir Station, spent from Friday until Monday in Pricetown visiting her brother.

HELENA STATION.

Sunday was a well spent day with the Helena people. They entertained quite a number of friends from different points Sunday.

The meeting was grand. There was a very large crowd upon the grounds. Many old friends had the pleasure of shaking hands once more. Rev. J. D. Brown, of Mayslick, preached the opening sermon in the morning; Rev. J. W. White, of Mayslick, in the afternoon; and Rev. J. R. Demby of Ewing, in the evening. We raised $119.11.

Mr. Charles Williams, who has recently become a member of the Helena Church, showed great interest in the meeting.

Mrs. Willie Clark entertained the visiting ministers right royally.

MT. STERLING.

The wife of the Rev. G. W. Mack is quite ill. She is being attended by Dr. Fields, the best physician in the city.

Rev. G. L. A. Wilson, of Helena, is preaching for Bro. Mack this week.

Several deaths have occurred here lately among our citizens and several are quite sick at this writing.

MORTONSVILLE.

Miss Sue Howard, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting Miss Jennie L. Jackson, returned home Saturday.

Miss Mary A. Devine entertained a delightful birthday party Thursday, Aug. 8, entertaining twenty-five guests.

Miss Jennie L. Jackson entertained Miss Mary B. Thomas, of Versailles, and Miss Mary E. Howard, of Nashville, Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Johnson spent last week in Lexington, the guest of Mrs. Beulah Mosby.

Mrs. Samella Ramsey, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeden and son spent Sunday in Frankfort.

NEPTON.

(By Anna Belle Thornton)

Mrs. Tate and daughter, Mary Lee, of Walnut Hills, are the guests of Mrs. Mary Fox, of East Ewing.

G. H. Dent and Miller Queen attended the Ripley, O., fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton arrived home from the Ripley fair. They had a pleasant trip.

Miss Bertha Brown and Mr. Charles Owens attended the camp meeting Helena, of which Rev. G. L. A. Wilson is pastor.

Rev. A. Walker was calling at the home of Mr. Charles Thornton Monday evening. He preached at his church in Nepton Sunday morning and night.

Local And Personal

Mrs. Lizzie Butler spent last week in Paris.

Mrs. Josephine Neal is quite sick at her home, 726 N. Mill street.

Miss Maggie Sauters was a visitor in Nicholasville last Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Greene and Mrs. Mary Williams spent Sunday in Brannon with Mrs. Julia Broadus.

Miss Carrie Cunningham is in the city, to be with her mother, who is very sick at her home.

Miss Lillie May Congleton, of Mt. Sterling, is in the city for a week's visit with friends.

Mr. W. H. Watkins and wife, of Dayton, O., are spending some time in the city.

Quite a crowd of Knights Templar attended the picnic at Georgetown on Wednesday.

Miss Nettie Tribble will leave Sunday for a visit of several weeks to Louisville and Cincinnati.

Prof. Wm. H. Perry, of Louisville, was among the attendants upon the Knights Templar convocation in this city this week.

Miss Alice McClure, of Cincinnati, will be the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret McClure, until after the fair.

Mrs. Emma Chinn delighted to entertain the Magnolia Club at her home on Pratt street. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Mrs. Phyllis Martin and Fannie Beck and little Miss Pearl Chinn spent Sunday in the Queen City with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mollie Wilson left Sunday for her home in Cincinnati, after a few days visit with relatives and friends. She was accompanied by Miss Julia Mae Williams and Miss Margaret Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haskins, of 518 W. Fifth street, entertained with dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Martha Bowman, of Cincinnati, the guest of Miss Nettie Tribble. Those present were: Mrs. Bowman, Miss Tribble, Mrs. Green Boone and Mr. Charlie Mitchell.

We congratulate Mr. A. L. Bridwell on his election to position as teacher at the Reform School. We have known the young man for several years. During his course at State Normal, from which he was graduated last June, he was a close student, and will no doubt make a good teacher.

Mrs. Nettie Warrick, of Campbell street, who for the past five years has presided over the culinary department at State Normal, Frankfort, left Thursday for Dayton, O., to accept a similar position in the Moore hotel at that place. "Miss Nettie," as she is familiarly known, is a most excellent cook, and Mr. Moore is to be congratulated upon securing her services. We wish her much success in her new field, and extend our sympathy to the boys and girls at Normal, who will certainly miss her savory dishes.

GEORGETOWN.

(By G. E. L.)

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lawless entertained Tuesday with a delicious lunch Rev. and Mrs. Warren Spotts, of Louisville. Rev. Spotts is a Bible student at State University, Louisville, preparing for the ministry, that he may be able to bring some souls to Christ.

VERSAILLES.

[By Mack Brown]

Miss Lillian Berry, of Lexington, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Brooks.

Miss Dollie Polk and Miss Pearl Arnold, of this town, spent Monday in Lexington.

Mr. Howard Buckner is again very sick.

Mrs. Harriet Maxbury, of Jacksontown, is very sick.

Miss Lillie B. own is able to be out after a few weeks illness.

Mr. James Johnson, of Macey Avenue, is very ill from a fall he sustained while plastering a house.

Rev. Burns, of Frankfort, preached an excellent sermon at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Coleman is very ill.

Mrs. Mack Brown spent Thursday in Lexington.

Revs. Polk, Butler and Prof. T. J. Smith are attending the association at Frankfort this week.

Mr. Edward Beauford, of Louisville, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Maggie Beauford.

Mr. Grant Stepp, who has been in Indianapolis, returned home last week.

Master Harrison Johnson, the grandson of Mrs. Lizzie Breckinridge, is mending slowly.

The grand picnic, given by the I. D. S. and D. of H., was largely attended Saturday.

Rev. Gill, of Burgin, was in this town Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Fannie Gill, widow of Mr. Jack Gill.

Prof. W. H. Perry and Mr. Phil White, of Louisville, and W. H. Watkins, of Dayton, O., paid us an early call on Thursday morning. We were delighted to see them, especially the Professor, with whom we have been on terms of intimacy for more than thirty years, and who helped us in our fight for better educational facilities in the years ago. He is still fighting for the same thing, and we are with him heart and hand.

First Thames Steamboats.
The first steamer on the Thames was the Marjory, in 1814. The Richmond followed her a year later.

HAVE YOU EVER USED
BLACK STAR

Best C O A L mined in the South
IT IGNITES QUICKLY, BURNS FREELY AND IS LOW IN ASH.

Try it and you'll use no other

Louis des Cognets & Co.

INCORPORATED
PHONES 6 - 64 - 239

Always On The Watch

Wise housekeepers are always on the watch for something better. The best flour is the cheapest in the long run and then you can make so many little delicacies with the best flour. Besides there is no worry. Be sure you use

Lexington CREAM Flour

And see what a treat you have been missing three times every day. "CREAM" saves the shortening.

MADE ONLY BY
LEXINGTON ROLLER MILLS CO.
INCORPORATED
"THE BLUE GRASS MILLERS." LEXINGTON, KY

ROSZELL BROS.,

—DEALERS IN—

HAY, GRAIN, FEED AND COAL

Warehouse, elevator and yards, Cor. Broadway and Bolivar Sts.
BOTH PHONES 289

Manufacturer of Rex Crushed Feed

LEXINGTON STEAM CLEANING AND TAILORING DEPARTMENT

—HAS REMOVED TO 418 W. MAIN ST.—

PRESSING AND CLEANING. WORK CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED.

Have your clothes STEAM CLEANED—it is better than dry
—cleans both inside and outside. This style of work is GUARANTEED.

A. B. HAWKINS, Proprietor.

City Market Ice Cream
BEST IN KENTUCKY

VANILLA, CHOCOLATE AND FRUIT

One Quart 30c. Half Gallon 55c.

One Gallon 90c. Two Gallons $1.60

Three Gallons $2.25

ICE CREAM MAN

CITY MARKET

BRACKTOWN.

(By Lena Hawkins.)

Services were held Sunday morning and evening at the Bracktown Church, Rev. Alexander officiating.

On next Sunday Rev. Mr. Washington is expected to preach at the Bracktown Church.

Miss Lena Hawkins spent from Friday until Monday in Georgetown attending the Chataqua meeting.

Mrs. Lena Jackson, Mrs. Mamie White and Miss Jo. Anna Jackson spent from Saturday to Monday in Georgetown attending the Chataqua.

Mr. Jesse Lewis, of Lexington, who has been ill, was able to visit at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bady.

Rev. Alexander and wife entertained Rev. Spotts and his wife, of Louisville, Friday, Aug. 6.

Mr. Lation Batts, of Winchester, is now visiting his uncle, Mr. Green Brooks.

Mr. Jackson, of Frankfort, is now visiting his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. James Fields.

Mrs. Ramsey, of Bracktown, has returned home from a two weeks' visit.

Mr. George Scruggs, of Lexington, and Miss Effie Christopher, of Yarnallton, were married Aug. 12.